„Romantic Songs“

The Voice accompanied by an oboe, viola and piano – one of the most colorful and appealing combinations for chamber music.

The mezzo-soprano Jana Kuruová (soloist at the “Deutsche Oper” in Berlin) and Ivan Danko (Principal oboe at the “Staatsoper Stuttgart”) created together a delightful project for chamber music where romantic songs are at its core. Works from the romantic period are the main area of the Hugo Kauder Trio as well as for Jana Kuruová, who was successful on the stage of the greatest operas of this world like the “Semperoper” in Dresden, the “Bayerische Staatsoper” in Munich or the National theatre in Prague. Thanks to our common fondness for romantic works the idea was born to present to our audience reinterpretations from Schumann, Dvorak, Rachmaninow, Tschaikowski and others in attractive arrangements. You can find further details on our program upon request.
